NARRATIVE:

Cosey, is a registered arson offender. He has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 21 and includes convictions for battery, assault, theft, possession of controlled substance, disturbing the peace, and was most recently convicted of causing fire to an inhabited structure. Cosey was released from state custody to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on August 21st, 2013. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in August 2013 after Cosey absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Cosey qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for causing fire to an inhabited structure is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His violent criminal history, status as an arson registrant, and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted and a high public safety concern.
